

Love, Life and Tragedy

This programme weaves together a rich tapestry of love, longing, and tragedy, beginning with Robert Schumann's Frauenliebe und Leben, a poignant exploration of a woman's emotional journey through love, marriage, and loss. Tchaikovsky's Six Romances deepen the exploration of romantic emotion and include the popular songs None but the Lonely Heart and Bitterly and Sweetly. Sergei Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet Suite arranged for Clarinet and Piano, offers a vivid musical depiction of the iconic love story, from the joyous passion of the young lovers to their tragic end. Together, these works create a powerful narrative that spans the depth of human emotion, from the heights of love to the sorrow of parting.

R Schumann- Frauenliebe und Leben (Selection)
P. I Tchaikovsky- Six Romances (Selection)

S Prokofiev- Romeo and Juliet Suite
